

Now Enrolling for Spring/Summer 2018!

Our Writing Rewards is back!

It is a known fact that expressing your thoughts and Ideas on paper not only benefits the writer but everyone else engaged! LEEF wants to help encourage the writing by offering Writing Rewards. We are asking elementary students to submit one page, Middle school two pages, High School three pages, all double spaced essays about the theme of the month. February's Topics will be on Career and Black History: In celebration of Black History Month, tell us about someone within Black History that most people don't know about. Who are they and what have they done? or Martin Luther King had a dream of equality in America. What dream do you have for America?

Enter both and have twice the chance to win! We will pick one winner from each level. All three winners will get a Gift Card for one free hour in our Learning Center, their interview and essay published online. The best of the best will get a In and Out meal card & Johns incredible game card $20 . Essay is due by FEB. 28th no exceptions! To be submitted by email (lelc.johnniec@gmail.com) or hard copy.
